

I object to reducing the restriction to the do not call list that was established by New Jersey. I enjoy not being bothered by the telemarketers on an almost daily basis.